Internship Packet

Internship Overview & Cost

Where will the internship be?

Our Summer internships are in La Vega, Dominican Republic and the surrounding communities that we serve.

What are the dates for the internship?

Internship opportunities are open from May 29th- July 31st. Applicants can serve for a minimum of 4 weeks and up to a maximum of 8 weeks.

What will interns do while in the Dominican Republic?

- Interns will assist short-term teams that will be visiting during the summer.
- Interns will work with local churches in 5-6 communities to create, plan, and implement sustainable youth and children outreach initiatives.
- Interns with experience in digital storytelling, photography and/or video will help to capture, edit, and output 6-10 specific impact stories for Global Effect.
- Interns will participate in water filter data collection in communities that have previously received distributions.

What are the deadlines and fees:

- Application deadline: March 1st
(Intern positions are limited and may fill up quickly so early submission of the application is encouraged).
- If accepted into the intern program, there is a $500 deposit due by March 15th
- Final balance due: May 17th

How much support will I need to raise?

The cost of the internship will be $1,500 for 4 weeks and $2,000 for 8 weeks. This includes lodging, food, in-country transportation, translators, emergency insurance, and project cost while in the Dominican Republic.

What is the deadline for raising funds?

Once you are approved to serve as an intern we encourage you to begin fundraising immediately. There is a $500 deposit due by March 15th. The remaining balance is due by May 17th. It is up to you to purchase your airline ticket in a timely manner. We recommend no later than 21 days prior your departure date to the field.

Internship Overview & Cost

Where will I live?

Housing varies by location but may include sharing a house with other interns and/or living with host families. This is something determined by the number of interns in country and may change based on the team dynamics.

What are the age, language, and vaccination requirements for an internship?

Age requirement: Interns must be 18 years of age or older

Language: Language proficiency in Spanish is not required

How do I apply for an internship with Global Effect?

You will be required to complete an application, resume, three reference letters (including one from your pastor), and a phone interview in order to be considered. Once these are all completed a decision will be made within one week of the phone interview.

Please email interns@globaleffect.org to receive an application.
